

Robert “Pete” Edwards

Born and raised in Tampa, Florida, Robert “Pete” Edwards has almost four decades of leadership in community service. A graduate of Leto High School and Florida A&M University in Tallahassee, Edwards earned his degree in Sociology with a concentration in Correctional Science.

Mr. Edwards has worked in the criminal justice and rehabilitation services field and presented before the Kansas State Supreme Court on the importance of establishing juvenile justice centers. He has served as a drug treatment counselor with adults authorized by the courts and the Department of Corrections. Mr. Edwards has also worked with the Tampa Police Department, Hillsborough County School System, Boys and Girls Clubs and other community groups.

Edwards was a Board member of the Ybor Boys and Girls Club for six years and is dedicated to making a positive difference in the lives of Hillsborough County’s youth. He has three children and two grandchildren.

---

Children’s Board
HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY

---

Dreams Worth Growing