

Susan P. Schneider

Susan Schneider is employed by Hillsborough County Public Schools as a Psychological Services diagnostician. As such, her role encompasses extensive testing and evaluation as part of the psychological assessments of students ages 3-21 with special needs. Susan trains teachers and staff members locally and throughout the country. She developed a nationally acclaimed Train-the-Trainer program entitled, "Teaching Strategies for Young Children: Drug Exposed and At Risk". She is a board-certified Associate Behavior Analyst and serves as a behavioral consultant on many challenging cases.

Mrs. Schneider is involved in many professional, civic, and community organizations and has held leadership roles in many of them. She was appointed by Hillsborough County Commission to serve on several advisory boards concerning children. Susan has served on the executive board of the Hillsborough County Council PTA since 1984 and served on the Citizen's Advisory Council for the Children's Board since its inception.

Susan is an elder for Hyde Park Presbyterian Church where she teaches Sunday school and plays in the hand bell choir. She has a married son serving in the United States Air Force and a five year-old granddaughter.
